Yellow warning
Rain

Between 15:00 Fri 6 Dec 2024 and
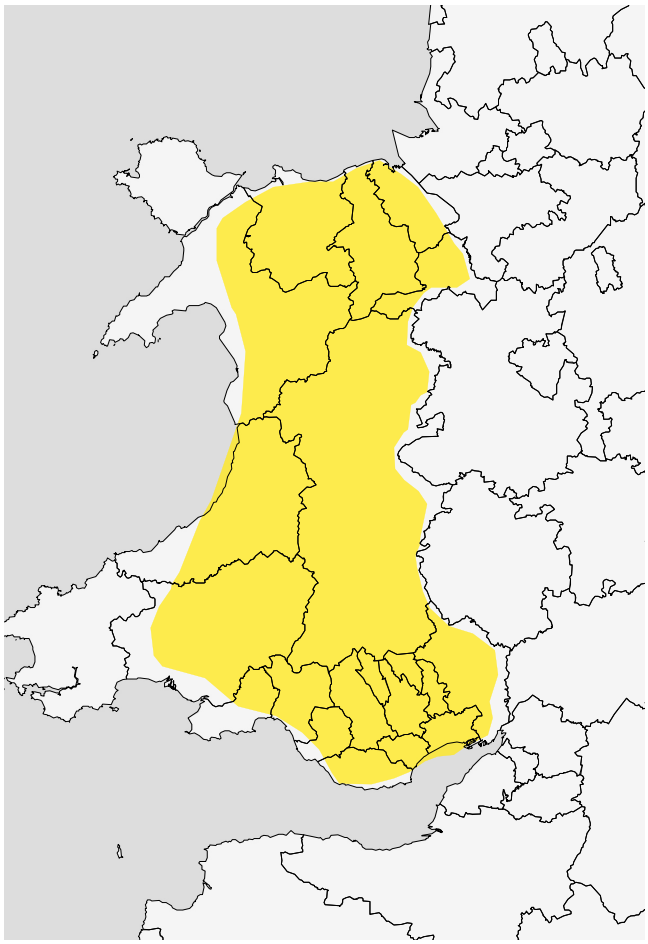
21:00 Sat 7 Dec 2024



Heavy rain associated with Storm Darragh could lead to some flooding and disruption.

What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Where flooding occurs, there is a slight chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a small chance that some communities will become cut off by flooded roads
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

A period of heavy rain associated with Strom Darragh will continue through Saturday, with the heaviest rain through Saturday morning. 20 to 30 mm is expected quite widely, with some parts of Wales likely to see 50 to 60 mm over this period. This may lead to some flooding and disruption in places.

What should I do?

Check if your property could be at risk of flooding. If so, consider preparing a flood plan and an emergency flood kit.

✓ Very low likelihood of medium impacts

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.

People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area

Reason for update

Warning updated to remove Northern Ireland as rain has now eased and will soon clear. Warning end time extended for Wales as rain expected to persist into the evening.
